CONTRACTS AND PROCUREMENT

LETTER SOLICITATION NO.

0026-2019

ISSUE DATE: April 9, 2019

CLOSING DATE: April 17, 2019

CAPTION: DCHA BUILDS INITIATIVE COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT STRATEGY CONSULTANT

Dear Prospective Offeror:

The District of Columbia Housing Authority (DCHA) issues this written Letter Solicitation on behalf of its Office of Public Affairs and Communication (OPAC) to solicit a Consultant for the DCHA BUILDS INITIATIVE Community Engagement Strategy in accordance with the Simplified Acquisition Methods for less than $150,000 detailed in the DCHA Procurement Policy, applicable Federal standards, United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) regulations, and local laws. For any contract that involves District funds, DCHA shall comply with the Procurement Practices Reform Act of 2010, effective April 8, 2011 (D.C. Law 18-371; D.C. Official Code §§ 2-351.01 et seq.) (2011 Repl.) as detailed within this solicitation.

INTRODUCTION

The District of Columbia Housing Authority (“DCHA”) is dedicated to enhancing the quality of life in the District of Columbia by providing and effectively managing affordable housing, which is diverse, well maintained, and aesthetically pleasing for those whose circumstances prevent them from competing in the general marketplace. Besides operating over 8,300 units with public housing operating subsidy, DCHA also contracts over 14,000 private units through its Housing Choice Voucher Program (“HCVP”). DCHA has embarked on an ambitious program of development and redevelopment to create economically diverse communities and neighborhoods. DCHA is one of the most innovative housing authorities in the nation and is actively pursuing non-governmental sources of financing to promote HCVP homeownership assistance programs, project-based public housing subsidies, and implement more creative uses of its authority through the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD)’s Move to Work (MTW) Demonstration Program.

OVERVIEW

DCHA requires experienced professional Community Engagement Consulting Services to support OPAC with the agency’s DCHA BUILDS INITIATIVE Engagement Strategy. DCHA invites interested, licensed, qualified individual consultants or organizations to submit a proposal in response to the solicitation.

BACKGROUND

Immediate community engagement activities are required in support of DCHA’s BUILDS INITIATIVE.

DCHA BUILDS INITIATIVE is the agency’s bold strategy to house DCHA families in vibrant, sustainable, and safe homes and communities. DCHA’s focus is to generate a constructive dialogue with practical solutions for maintaining quality housing while leveraging federal funding mechanisms and DCHA assets.

DCHA's goals for the community engagement strategy is to inform communities of interest, develop in partnership with customers' practical solutions for mitigating impact and achieve positive outcomes for DCHA families and communities.

QUALIFICATIONS

Offerors shall have over 5 years of experience in related field (government relations, community engagement, crisis communication and development) with proven record of accomplishment of mission-driven work built on deep understanding of and strong engagement with the communities DCHA serves.

SCOPE OF SERVICES

The contracted consultant or organization ("Consultant") will help develop and execute community engagement activities with the goal of seeking input from various DCHA stakeholders including

- DCHA customers
- Housing advocates
- Local and federal policy makers
- Government partners

Consultant will conduct target audiences and engagement activities April through December 2019 and will include:

- Resident only meetings: 16 meetings
- General public meetings: 4 meetings
- Capacity building meeting for Resident council leaders: 2 meetings

Consultant shall plan and implement the following Key components of the work that will likely include:

- Designing and planning of overall community engagement activities in consultation with DCHA's Office of Public Affairs;
- Researching and reviewing key relevant existing reports and providing a summary to help inform the resident community during the engagement process;
- Developing the DCHA BUILDS INITIATIVE strategic framework built on existing community knowledge base;
- Overseeing execution of all community engagement activities/meetings with appropriate guidance and support from DCHA staff to include communication and outreach, logistics, content development, and facilitation of discussions;

- Drafting and providing full reports from all community engagement activities/meetings that include 1) detailed notes from each meeting, 2) summary report and implications and 3) presentation of high-level findings and recommendations.

SECTION 3 REQUIREMENTS

All contractors shall comply with the Section 3 program, as defined in the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968 (12 U.S.C. 1701u) (Section 3), amended by the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 (1992 Act commonly known as and herein after as the Section 3 Program). Section 3 compliance requires all contractors performing work on behalf of DCHA or any of its subsidiaries to ensure that training, employment, contracting and other economic opportunities generated by the federal financial assistance shall, to the greatest extent feasible, be directed toward low-income and very-low-income persons, particularly those who are recipients of government assistance for housing.

Contractors and subcontractors will:

1. Incur all costs required for compliance with the applicable regulations;
2. Be subject to DCHA monitoring for compliance, and
3. Accept any applicable penalties for non-compliance.

The contractor must include a signed copy of the Section 3 Contractor Compliance Agreement and a complete, compliant Section 3 Action Plan as part of its proposal to be considered for contract award. The required documents can be found in the solicitation's attachments. The Section 3 Contractor Compliance Agreement should be read in its entirety before completing the Section 3 action plan since it provides details about DCHA's Section 3 policy.

Please consult Hanna Koerner, Special Advisor in the DCHA Office of Resident Services at 202.535.1517 hkoerner@dchousing.org for additional information or assistance with the completion of your Section 3 Compliance Agreement and/or Section 3 Action Plan.

TERM OF CONTRACT

The term of the awarded contract shall be nine (9) months from the date of contract execution, as deemed appropriate in the representation of DCHA; based upon the availability of funds.

TYPE OF CONTRACT

DCHA intends to award a fixed price contract for services as outlined in the Scope of Services. The Offeror shall provide all specified items and services required by DCHA.

OPTION TO EXTEND THE TERM OF THE CONTRACT - [RESERVED]

MANNER OF AWARD

DCHA may award a contract upon the basis of the initial proposal received, without discussion. Therefore, each initial proposal should contain the Offerors best and final terms from a cost and technical standpoint. Proposals shall represent the best efforts of the Offeror and will be evaluated as such. Proposal should set forth full, accurate, and complete information as required by this Letter of Solicitation.

INSURANCE

The successful Respondent, at its expense, shall obtain the minimum insurance coverage set forth below and keep such insurance in force throughout the contract period. Respondents to this solicitation must have the capacity to obtain a Certificate of Insurance at the stated limits below, prior to and as a condition of contract award. All insurance provided by Contractors in this section shall set forth DCHA as an additional insured and as a loss payee as allowable per coverage (as applicable).

Contractor/Consultant shall carry and pay for:

MINIMUM INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS
BASIC COVERAGE
Commercial General Liability (GL):
Per Occurrence: $1,000,000
Aggregate: $2,000,000
Products and Completed Operations:$2,000,000
Personal/Advertising Injury: $2,000,000
Automobile Liability: $1,000,000 per occurrence
Workers' Compensation: Statutory Limits
Employer's Liability: This coverage is not available to employees if Worker's Compensation applies (see 32 DC Official Code § 1504). If and when Employer's Liability insurance applies, however, the minimum requirements are as follows:

Each Accident: $500,000
Employee Disease: $500,000
Disease-Policy Limit: $500,000
Umbrella or Excess Liability {Required for Coverages below $1M Occurrence and $2M Aggregate}
$5,000,000
Professional Liability (Errors and Omissions)
Professional Consultant Services with $1M Per Occurrence and $2M Aggregate for General Liability and Employment Practices.
Per Occurrence: $1,000,000
Aggregate: $2,000,000

With respect to the policies described above, these policies must:

- (a) Be in place before the execution of any contract awarded, as in-force insurance is a condition precedent;
- (b) Contractor/Consultant shall provide DCHA annual Certificate of Insurance as evidence of the limits of coverage described above;
- (c) In the event the Contractor's insurance expires during the execution of or term of the contract, Contractor must provide DCHA with renewal certificates 30 days prior to the expiration date of the expiring coverage;
- (d) Insurance contracts shall require the insurance company to notify DCHA in the event of a substantial change in coverage during the policy term;
- (e) Be insured by A.M. Best Companies with a rating of A-VIII or higher; companies authorized to do business and in good standing in the District of Columbia, on such companies and on such conditions, and with such beneficial interest appearing thereon as shall be acceptable to the DCHA.

In the event a claim arises under the contract, the Contractor/Consultant will promptly notify the DCHA Contracting Officer's Technical Assistance Representative (COTR) and the DCHA Office of Risk Management (ORM) at 202-535-1800 or by email to ORM@dchousing.org. In addition, the Contractor/Consultant will investigate and furnish the DCHA COTR and ORM with reports of all accidents, claims and potential claims for damage or injury and will cooperate with its insurers and those of DCHA.

INDEMNIFICATION

The Contractor shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless HUD, DCHA and its respective employees, agents, contractors, Board of Commissioners, members, managers and other representatives (the “Indemnified Parties”), from any loss, cost damage, claim, demand, suit, liability, judgment and expense (including any attorney fees and other costs of litigation) arising out of or resulting from or in connection with any work called for or performed under this contract, any breach by the Contractor/Consultant, its agents, and employees of any provision of this contract, or any negligent or bad faith act(s) or omission (s) or the negligent performance of this contract by the Contractor/Consultant, its agents, employees or any other person or entity for which the Contractor may be responsible. Any provisions or limits of insurance set forth in this contract shall not limit the Respondent’s liability. At its own expense, the Respondent shall obtain the necessary insurance coverage acceptable to DCHA to comply with this indemnification requirement; provide evidence of such coverage to DCHA, and such coverage shall be in place before the execution of the contract awarded and as a condition to it. This insurance is primary to, and will not seek contribution from, any other insurance available to an additional insured under your policy.

EMPLOYEE DISHONESTY INSURANCE

Upon contract award, Respondent shall provide evidence of employee dishonesty insurance for an amount not less than $250,000, obtained at its own expense, for the purpose of protecting DCHA against dishonest acts of the Contractor/Consultants and its employees. DCHA must be named as the loss payee. The insurance company, form, limits and content of such coverage will be subject to the approval of DCHA.

BONUS POINTS

Business Enterprise Designation Points for Local Small Minority/Woman-Owned Business (Maximum 10 Bonus Points)

The DCHA will add additional points for Business Enterprise Designations after the technical evaluations have been completed and the competitive range has been established by the Contracting Officer.

Upon the determination of the competitive range, each Offeror who has been deemed technically qualified and is within the competitive range can receive additional points if the Offeror is determined to be a Local, Small, Minority or Woman-Owned Business Enterprise (LSM/WBE).

The following definitions apply for the DCHA Business Enterprise Designation Points:

- “Local” means within the Metropolitan Business Area;
- “Small” means a firm with 500 employees or less;
- “Minority” means 51% ownership; and
- “Woman-Owned” means 51% ownership.

The points shall be awarded to the Offeror based on a review of the Offeror, either party of a joint-venture, or an Offeror’s subcontractors.

The points will be awarded in the following manner:

Local	= 2.5 points
Small	= 2.5 points
Minority	= 2.5 points
Woman-Owned	= 2.5 points

A maximum of 10 points can be added to the score of a technically qualified Offeror who is in the competitive range.

CBE Participation (Maximum 2.5 Bonus Points)

DCHA will recognize the District of Columbia certification as meeting the certification requirements of its Certified Business Enterprise (“CBE”) program. Reliable certification from other CBE programs will be considered and Contractors may utilize any other CBE firms that qualify under the definitions set forth herein. In recognition of the District’s CBE certification, DCHA will use the following CBE point system below to determine the number of preference points awarded to contractors with CBE certification. Please be advised that if one or more development team members is a CBE, DCHA will only award points for one CBE team member. The point award will be based on the CBE with the highest number of preference points awarded by the District.

TOTAL MAXIMUM POINTS (to include Bonus Points)

179.5

Each response will be ranked using the above criteria based upon the information presented in the statements, the references provided by the Contractor, DCHA’s knowledge from prior engagements, if applicable, independent background checks and other factual information available to the DCHA. Contractors are advised to provide sufficient information and references to demonstrate their approach, experience and capabilities.

RELATIVE IMPORTANCE OF TECHNICAL VERSUS COST/PRICE FACTORS

DCHA will make an award to the responsible Offeror, whose offer conforms to the solicitation and is most advantageous to the DCHA (i.e., that which represents the best value to the DCHA), cost or price and other factors considered. The proposed cost must be considered reasonable and must reflect the proposed technical approach.

DCHA may award a contract to other than the lowest priced offer. In the event that two or more offers are considered technically equivalent, the evaluated cost or price will be of primary importance in determining the proposal most responsive.

DCHA may make multiple awards to ensure availability of a wide range of products or services.

The combined relative merit of the technical evaluation factors listed below will be more significant than cost or price in the selection of the Contractor.

PROTEST

Any party involved in a dispute with DCHA related to any procurement decision that has unfavorably affected the aggrieved party is entitled to a resolution of the dispute in a timely manner and in accordance with applicable local or Federal law. The Protester, as defined below, in all instances, must pursue a remedy through the established administrative procedures of DCHA prior to pursuing a protest with the Federal agency, defined below. Guidelines and procedures that must be followed are presented herein.

DEFINITIONS

Contracting Officer. The person within DCHA or DCHA duly authorized by the governing body thereof to administer contracts for and in the name of DCHA as applicable.

Executive Director. The Executive Director of DCHA.

Federal Agency. Unless otherwise defined, the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD).

Protester. Any Respondent to a solicitation made by DCHA who has submitted a bid, quotation, or proposal that contains all the material requirements of the solicitation and has received an unfavorable decision concerning the results thereof; and has a valid basis to challenge the award decision, or any Respondent who files a complaint based on the content of the solicitation, prior to the proposal due date based on specific facts giving rise to any such complaint.

PROCEDURES

1. Any protest against a solicitation must be received before the due date for receipt of bids or proposals, and any protest against the award of a contract must be received within ten (10) calendar days of contract award by the Contracting Officer on behalf of DCHA, or the protest will not be considered, unless a different time period has been established, if applicable. In such cases, the time-period set forth in the solicitation and/or contract prevails. The complaint must be in writing, and at a minimum must identify the name, address and phone number of the Protestor; Solicitation number and project title; a detailed statement of the basis for the protest; supporting evidence or documents to substantiate any arguments; form of relief requested.
2. The Contracting Officer may suspend the procurement pending resolution of the protest, if warranted by the facts presented.
3. The Contracting Officer shall issue a written decision to the Protestor within ninety (90) days of its receipt by certified mail with return receipt requested. The written decision shall state a description of the claim; a reference to the pertinent clause; a statement of the factual areas of agreement or disagreement; a statement of the Contracting Officer's decision with supporting rationale; and a statement referencing appeal rights.
4. The Contracting Officer's Final Decision may be appealed to the DCHA Executive Director through the Office of the General Counsel. Such request must be in writing and made within ten (10) calendar days of receipt of the Contracting Officer's decision.

5. The DCHA Executive Director's decision may be appealed to the District of Columbia Board of Contract Appeals (CAB) or other court of competent jurisdiction as determined and agreed to by the Parties. The appeal must be filed within thirty (30) days of receipt of the decision rendered by the DCHA Executive Director, or other time period required by the selected court of competent jurisdiction, as applicable.
6. The DCHA Board or Commissioners has no jurisdiction over Bid Protests.
7. All protests, except those directed to CAB, shall be addressed to the administrative offices of DCHA. The address of the administrative offices of DCHA is as follows:
