Purpose

This is to inform you that there is certain information you must provide when applying and certifying your eligibility for assisted housing. There are penalties that apply if you knowingly omit information or give false information.

Penalties for Committing Fraud

The United States Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) and DCHA place a high priority on preventing fraud. If your application or recertification forms contain false or incomplete information, you may be:

- Evicted from your apartment or house;
- Required to repay all overpaid rental assistance you received;
- Prohibited from receiving future assistance.
- Fined up to $10,000;
- Imprisoned for up to 5 years; and/or

Asking Questions

When completing an application for assistance or going through the initial eligibility/continued eligibility determinations for housing assistance you should know what is expected of you. If you do not understand something, ask for clarification. DCHA staff assisting you can answer your questions or find what the answer is.

Completing the Application

When you answer application or eligibility determination questions, you must include the following information:

Income

- All sources of money you or any member of your household receive (wages, welfare payments, alimony, social security, pension, etc.);
- Any money you receive on behalf of your children (child support, social security for children, etc.);
- Income from assets (interest from savings account, credit union, or certificate of deposit, dividends from stock, etc.) - see "asset" paragraph below for details
- Earnings from second job or part-time job; and
- Any anticipated income (such as a bonus or pay raise you expect to receive)

Assets

DCHA will only require reporting of assets from total net family income of more than $1,000/year and total net family assets valued at more than $15,000

- All bank accounts, savings bonds, certificate of deposits, stocks, real estate, etc. that are owned by you and any adult member of your family’s household who will be living with you.
- Any business or asset you sold in the last 2 years for less than its full value such as your home to your children
Signing the Application and Eligibility Forms
- Do not sign any form unless you have read it, understand it, and are sure everything is complete and accurate.
- When you sign the application and certification forms, you are claiming that the form(s) is complete to the best of your knowledge and belief. You are committing fraud if you sign a form knowing that it contains false or misleading information.
- Information you give on your application and eligibility forms will be verified by DCHA. In addition, HUD will perform computer matches of the income you report with various federal, State, or private agencies to verify that it is correct.

Recertifications
You must provide updated information as part of the scheduled recertification process. You must report any changes in income and family/household composition immediately.
Be sure to ask when you must recertify. At a minimum, you must report the following on the recertification forms:
- The names of all of the people (adults and children) who will actually be living with you, whether or not they are related to you.
- All income changes, such as increases in pay and/or benefits, change or loss of job and/or benefits, etc., for all household members;
- Any household members moving in or out; and
- All assets that you or your household members own that are valued at more than $15,000; household assets that generate net income of more than $1,000/year.

Beware of Fraud
You should be aware of the following fraud schemes:
- Do not pay any money to file an application;
- Do not pay any money to move up on the waiting list;
- Do not pay for anything not covered by your lease;
- Get a receipt for any money you pay; and
- Get a written explanation if you are required to pay for anything other than rent (such as maintenance charges).

Reporting Abuse
If you are aware of anyone who has falsified an application, or if anyone tries to persuade you to make false statements, report them to DCHA. If that is not possible, then you can call the local HUD office or the HUD Offices of Inspector General (OIG) Hotline at (800) 347-3735

You can also write to: HUD-OIG HOTLINE, (GFI) 451 Seventh Street, SW, Washington, DC 20410
